Oh! how my heart is pained within me, while I am writing this letter, for a perishing world. Brother, let me say to the many readers of our Religious Telescope, that our work in Kentucky, as a church, crushed because we are not protected by the laws of this State. A great many of our leading members are preparing to move West. Our lives are threatened. It is said West. Our lives are threatened. It is said that there was a mob of men followed me the other night to an appointment, to whip me, but they did not effect their purpose. On Sunday, some of our friends went to meeting armed some of our friends went to meeting armed with deadly weapons. This we are sorry to see. Lord help us to do our duty! I would now say that the Rev. John M. Blair and three of his sons and their families, and about eight other families, among whom is the missionary are about to leave this State; likewise, Rev.
